

No. 10.

A good Democrat's attention was called, recently, to an assembly of the inhabitants of the baryard. A tremendous cry went up from the congregated multitude and sore distress was written upon every face. The pig was crying at the top of his voice; the billy goat, though mute, showed signs of inexpressible grief; the gobbler's ceaseless gobbling was transformed to a doleful put, put, the goose cackled not, the gander was silent and the guinea ceased his chattering, while the "chittles" and the "frys" and the mother hen were speechless and awe-stricken. Realizing that something terrible had transpired among the colony of fowls and their associates, our good Democratic friend rushed into the midst of the scene, shouting: "What's the matter, here?" And he immediately saw his proud and diletant cock follow on his knees in sore affliction, pre-

THE voters of Ohio county should remember the campaign of last fall; they should remember that assassination was made the issue from a Democratic standpoint and that, try as hard as they might, they could not be forced to any other question. They should remember that Mr. Ben D. Ringo, the present chairman and director general of the Democratic party in Ohio county, went about over the county with a pocket full of cartridges, which he flourished and exhibited, as the weapons of the "Civil Liberty Band;" that in debate at Horse Branch with Judge Wells.

JUDGE, old boy, come now, be good, if you'll just go out to one Republican speaking and see how little there is left of you, when Rogers is through with you, you'll just be sur-that night by Jimbo Fields and Clarence Gassell, colored boys, nineteen and fifteen years old, respectively. That was a journeyman printer, who worked temporarily on the Shelby Sentinel. He came to this city from Winchester in July.* He had been drinking heavily for two or three days. Last night he wandered into a tough negro settlement.

His confessed murderers claim that he was trying to force his way into the house of Field's mother when they stoned him to death. His skull was crushed and he was dying when found near a house by Anna Fields, mother of Jimbo Fields.

While we regret exceedingly to lose Bro. Miller from the ranks of the party, as we look upon him as a noble gentleman, still we must decline to stop the Populist procession to wait for him to return. The Populist party must discipline its wayward members as other parties do, or fall apart of its own weakness. Populist who may feel friendly to Brother Miller must remember that he is no longer of our household, has publicly repudiated us, and thus very ungratefully returned a cold potato for favors he has received. The Populists of Ohio county, who number many loyal and true-hearted men, should refuse to be

Extend You a Cordial Invitation to be Present at Their

FALL OPENING OF MILLINERY

Saturday, Sept. 28,

From 9:30 a. m. to 10:00 p. m.

REMEMBER THE PLACE:

Dr. A. F. Stanley is quoted as saying: "He is thought to be taking a long rest." Don't forget to pay your dues to the REPUBLICAN while attending the fair next week.

Mr. Jas. McIntyre's family have moved to the Tracy property on Union street near the college.

Mr. T. H. Benton, Centertown, left yesterday for Louisville, where he goes to work on the Texas road.

See the stock of new Guns at Griffin's drug store. Good Guns at low prices. A splendid variety of different makes, every one guaranteed.

Mrs. Annie Steel, who has been sojourning in Evansville for the past year, has returned to Hartford to make her home with Hartford's people.

You can buy the best machine (the Singer) on earth, of Gross Williams. Try paying five dollars down and three dollars per month—ten cents per day.

Mr. Wayne Renter left yesterday at noon for Normin, Okla., to engage in business. Wayne has many friends here who wish him success in his new home.

Get your field seed wheat, drills and fertilizer from D. L. D. Sander. I will unload fertilizer the 23rd of September. Ten cents less at car. Beaver Dam, Ky.

The housing season is now at hand and if you want a good, reliable gun of any kind, call at Griffin's drug store. A large variety at prices that will make them sell.

Mrs. Sara Collins Smith invites the attention of the public to "The Economy Dry Goods Store" at R. T. Collins' old stand. Call and see her goods; it will pay you.

Those persons holding the keys to the ballot boxes of the primary will please send them to me immediately as the time is long since due.

Very resp'y,
LON ROGERS

We are agents for Swifts & Co's Pine Raw Bone Meal. This goods stands the analysis by Prof. W. A. Scovall, of Lexington. $1.90 per ton. Better than anything else sold. Why not buy the best? CARSON & CO.

Much preparation is being made for the Ohio County Fair, which commences at Hartford, Oct. 2, and continues four days. There will be unusual attractions this year. Don't miss it.

List of letters remaining dead in the Hartford post office: Miss Cornelia Young, Mr. Ed Ellis, Mr. Elijah Davis, Mr. William Thomas, Mr. R. J. Smith, Mr. John B. Pittle, Mr. Irel Carter, Mr. John L. Rock.

The fact that the fall is the proper time for delivering the products of the farm ought to remind our friends of their duty to THE REPUBLICAN. Watch the tag on your paper and if your time is up send in one dollar for renewal.

Il. O. Schroeter, the well known photographer, will arrive at the Hartford landing October 1, with his outfit. He will be prepared, as usual, to take the pictures of the people in first-class style at living prices.

There were some items this year that didn't amount to much, but this will not be the case with the Ohio County Fair. No disappointment here. Everything that is promised will be on hand. Don't forget the date and be sure to attend. At Hartford, Oct. 2—four days.

The Ohio County Fair Co. deserves to be congratulated on selecting the Renter Cornet Band to make music for the Fair. The Renter Band is easily the leading band in this section of the State. The public will be delighted with their music. Gentlemen of the band, we congratulate you.

The Republican candidates are meeting with the heartiest welcome ever extended a corps of candidates. Large crowds greet them at every appointment and their speeches are "sizing" up of the cowardly Democratic nominees are enthusiastically received. It is the duty of every citizen to know the condition of the county's business. Farmers have not the time to come to the county's seat of business and investigate the records hence, they should meet at these "spakings" and be informed from copies of the record as to the condition of affairs. The false and misrepresentations of the county's business are being exposed and the people should take advantage of the opportunity thus afforded.

Make your preparations to attend the Ohio County Fair this year. It will be bigger and better than ever. Commences Oct. 2—four days.

ADABURG, KY.
Sept. 25.—Mr. N. C. Haver's funeral was preached at the Christian church Sunday by Rev. Brandon. A large crowd was present.

Farmers are about done losing tobacco.

Mr. James H. Ambrose went to Beaver Dam Saturday on business.

Mr. W. T. Greer and family, Tally, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Patton Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Cook, of Rush Centre, Kan., who has been visiting friends and relatives in this community for the past few weeks, left for his home to-day.

The birthday dinner at Mr. J. H. Ambrose's Monday was an enjoyable affair.

Born, to the wife of Mr. J. H. W. Keown the 16th inst, a fine boy.

FOUND GUILTY

Trial Lasted Eight Hours and Twenty-six Minutes, Continuing for Two Days

The Prisoner Remained Absolutely Silent all During the Day and Seemed Unaffected.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Leon F. Czolgosz, alias Fred Nieman, was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury in Part III of the supreme court, in having, on the 6th day of September, shot President William McKinley, the wounds inflicted afterward resulting in the death of the President.

The wheels of justice moved swiftly. The trial of the assassin consumed eight hours and 26 minutes, and covered a period of only two days. Practically all of this time was occupied by the prosecution in presenting a case so clear, so conclusive that even had the prisoner entered the plea of insanity, it is doubtful if the jury would have returned a verdict different from the one rendered to-day.

The announcement made this afternoon by the attorneys for Czolgosz that the eminent scientist summoned by the Erie county bar association and by the district attorney to examine Czolgosz and to determine his exact mental condition had declared him to be perfectly sane, destroyed the only stage of a defense that Judge Lewis and Titus could have put together.

Before adjournment Justice White announced that he would pronounce sentence upon the defendant on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The prisoner was taken at once through the tunnel, under Delaware avenue, back to the jail. To all appearances he was in no way affected by the result of the trial.

The crowd gathered at the city hall to-day was the largest which has been seen since his arraignment. People lined up on both sides of the high road on the second floor, where court convenes, and fringed the stairs leading from the floor above. There was no demonstration except that of curiosity. A large number of women witnessed to-day's proceedings.

HORSE BRANCH, KY.
EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—I would have written this to the Herald, but knowing how it was disgusted with politics I would not disturb it in its rest. I have been a voter for twenty years. I have never scratched my ticket, but who is it that can stick to it this year? You can talk about top line or Republican rule, but if this two-man rule in this county can be beat, why, I will stick to them, but no, you can not beat J. P. Miller or T. J. South.

Why, the very idea of those bosses controlling the rest of the ticket, also the county committee. I believe in majority rule, but these two men who rule this county's Democracy, I will not support such a ticket, as well as others, no conscientious Democrat can support it. Why will they not let the voters of this county in joint debate? Is it because of their records, or is it this? Let them come out among us and defend the cause of Democracy. There is a principle there for them to defend, that is what they were nominated for. The voters are asking you to come to their rescue and not let their cause trail in the dust. We give you one more warning, if you are to be worthy of our support. Do not be afraid to defend our cause in joint debate.

ONE WHO LOOKS TO SEE.

SELECT, KY.
The boys of the Select have ball nine are all in high gear, they played Sugar Grove Sunday morning which resulted in a victory of 23 to 11 in favor of Select and Horse Branch in the evening, score 16 to 2 in favor of Select.

Mr. E. L. Keown has been on the sick list for several days with malaria fever.

Mrs. J. A. King, who has been sick for quite a while, is slowly improving.

Mr. Rogers, who is running for Judge, is gaining faster than any man that ever ran for office in our district, you can count on 90 or 100 majority Mr. Rogers, we are going to give it to you. We will say to the rest of the precincts in the county to come out and show their Republicanism. Down with Miller and his Goebellian. S. W.

Resolutions of Respect.
Whereas, This day being the day which the late and beloved President, Wm. McKinley, is taken to his final resting place and Whereas, Theo. Roosevelt, President of the United States, hath proclaimed this day a day of prayer and mourning.

Therefore, We, the people of Horse Branch and community, in memorial service assembled desiring to express our abiding faith in God, our love, faith and esteem for our lamented ruler and our most high appreciation of his great works and his pure, noble and exalted christian life beg leave to submit the following:

1. We look upon the life and works of our great Chief as a divine gift to the American people, a wise dispensation of Providence. His life from the cradle to the grave has been such as God would have it, a life of love, care and devotion to the great country that honored him, a life consecrated and devoted to the christian faith.

2. We look upon the death of President Wm. McKinley as a calamity indeed, and condemn the assassin who stole away his precious life as a villain of the blackest type, an enemy to government, an enemy to God and man.

3. We indulge the hope that the next Congress will pass such stringent laws that organized anarchy can not exist in this land of freedom, that the enemies of free government can not find refuge in America.

4. In the death of our late President America sustains the loss of the greatest man of the age, the most profound statesman of his time, a wise, generous, consecrated ruler whose life was devoted to the betterment of mankind. In his death mankind loses a friend.

5. In this hour of deepest grief and sorrow we extend our tenderest sympathy to Mrs. McKinley and pray Him in whose presence her beloved husband now lies, to comfort, protect, guide and save.

6. While we are bowed down in profound sorrow over the death of our lamented President, yet we express our deepest confidence in our new Chief Magistrate, Theo. Roosevelt, believing him capable in every sense to carry out the principles which have guided our nation through the greatest and most prosperous period in its history and carried the blessings of civilization to the islands of the sea.

7. That a copy of these resolutions be published in the county papers.

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes blemishes in the neck, disfigures the skin, influences the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was itched, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. K. T. Stevens, Troy, Ohio.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills will rid you of it, radically and permanently, as they have rid thousands.
